PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF FINAL JUDGMENT

Stanley Boim, Individually and as Administrator of the Estate of David Boim, deceased, and Joyce Boim (collectively, the Boims), through their attorneys, respectfully move this Court for entry of a final judgment in their favor against Holy Land Foundation for Relief and Development ("HLF"). This Court has determined HLF's liability under the Antiterrorism Act of 1990 ("ATA"), as amended, 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a), by granting the Boims' Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment in a Memorandum Opinion and Order on August 31, 2012. The Boims request that the Court now enter judgment in the amount of $156,000.00 (one hundred fifty six million dollars) as originally entered by the Court on December 8, 2004 against HLF and other defendants. The award of $156,000,000.00 (one hundred fifty six million dollars) represents the $52,000,000.00 (fifty-two million dollars) damage award found by the jury, as tripled by the Court pursuant to the ATA. Reliance on the original damage award is proper because while the Court's original entry of summary judgment against HLF was vacated by the Seventh Circuit on grounds that application of collateral estoppel to the D.C. courts' findings against HLF in Holy Land Foundation for Relief & Development v. Ashcroft was improper, the en banc court did not take fault with or dispute the determination of damages as established by the Boims' damages expert Dr. Stan Smith and assessed by the jury. On the contrary, the court affirmed the judgment (including damages) against two of HLF's co-defendants, Quranic Literacy Institute and American Muslim Society. Boim v. Holy Land Found. for Relief & Dev., 549 F.3d 685, 701-2, 705 (7th Cir. 2008). By contrast, the Seventh Circuit reversed the judgment against HLF as to liability only. Id. at 701 ("[T]he judgment against the Foundation must be reversed and the case against it remanded for further proceedings to determine its liability.") Thus, this Court may reinstate the original damage award against HLF in the amount of $156 million dollars.

WHEREFORE, the Boims respectfully request that this Court forthwith enter the Final Judgment Order (attached hereto) against HLF in the amount of $52 million dollars in compensatory damages, trebled pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a) to $156 million dollars.

Dated: October 5, 2012

Respectfully submitted,

Stanley Boim, Individually and as the Administrator of the Estate of David Boim, Deceased, and Joyce
